When can you start?

The Fencing Academy of Philadelphia accepts new beginners four times a year: September after Labor Day, January after New Year's Day, March/April, and the beginning of June. Beginners must start during the first two weeks of new sessions or wait until the next session.

New sessions are for ten weeks, come as often as you like. You may attend any class at any location that is suitable for your age and experience level. Because we offer so many class options there are no make-ups, no rollover to the next session and no refunds after the second week of classes. Equipment and materials are provided for beginners.

REGULAR ATTENDANCE IS CRITICAL FOR SUCCESS. Athletes should strive to train 2x weekly if possible, while consistent regular attendance at least once a week will ensure progress and provide a solid base for future development .

FAP is closed the weekend of all major holidays: Labor Day, Thanksgiving,Christmas, Easter, Memorial Day and the Fourth of July. The VFMA CACC & EA programs do not meet for the summer months. At our main location FAP offers day camps during the month of August for fencers who are Intermediate and beyond and also a camp between Christmas and New Year's.
